

DEAR PARENTS,

Thank you for sharing your wonderful children with us this year. As we saw throughout the presentations this past Sunday, with each Torah lesson examined and explored, your children learned important values and developed attitudes of consciousness that will carry them through life.

The Torah is full of infinite wisdom, relevant to our lives no matter how young or how old we may be. Thanks to our incredible teachers, the children learned these valuable lessons in ways that stimulated and excited both their hearts and minds. I'd like to extend one last hearty Thank You to our dedicated Hebrew School staff for the dedication and warmth they brought to each class. Feel free to extend your appreciation to your child's Morah via email.
