Services, Soup & Socializing!

Dear Friends,
It's that time of month again: 1st Friday!
We can almost hear you... "Yeah, I would love to come, but..."
To make it easier, we did all the thinking about why not to come.
But...we also broke it down to reason why YES to come!

Top 10 Reason NOT to come:

10. Friday night is my _____ night...
9. The kids don't want to come...
8. Too busy...
7. Too tired...
6. I don't know Hebrew...
5. I don't know the Rabbi...
4. I DO know the Rabbi...
3. I don't recognize the tunes...
2. Praying is boring...
1. I outgrew this with my Bar/Bat Mitzvah

Top 10 Reason to COME to First Fridays

10. It's Jewish tradition for thousands of years...
9. Show the kids that they can continue the tradition...
8. The 'regulars' would love your company (& they're warm and welcoming)...
7. You might find that you actually enjoy this slice of peace in a busy week...
6. Chicken soup
5. Matzah balls
4. Home made Challah
3. It couldn't hurt
2. It would make G-d happy if you stopped by to visit
1. Your grandma - whether in Hallendale or Heaven - will absolutely kvell!

Drop us a line to let us know if we made a good case for your attendance ;-))

Why waste? This week we learned a special mitzvah called baal tashchit. It's a very big Torah concept not to waste. To experience this mitzvah we took a bunch of recycables and made them into awesome sculptures. Pictured here is a sukkah. We also made a guy with a jetpack and a house. Cant wait to see you next week!

Morah Chaya

Grade 6/Kitah Vov

We went through all the different aspects of what makes a Jewish home well... Jewish! Different ways of how we can turn our "house of Jews" into a "Jewish home". And we couldn't travel through every room of our home without stopping in the kitchen for a little treat :) See you next week!

Morah Rachel

This week we learned about the leadership qualities of Abraham, and how we can embody those ideas. We completed the famous poem by Robert Frost: Two roads diverged in a wood...
